

The Worshipful Company of Educators and The Chartered College of Teaching invite you to

The Future of Digital Technology in Education Supporting Educators to Support Children's Learning

Wednesday 26 April 2023, 5:15-8pm
The Guildhall, London, EC2V 7HH

You are warmly invited to join the Worshipful Company of Educators and the Chartered College of Teaching to explore what using digital technology to support learning could be like in 2023 and beyond. This session will introduce implications from research, examples of high impact practice, and importantly will provide opportunities for meaningful discussion about the roles and actions of teachers, leaders and researchers - supporting greater precision when thinking about digital technology to support learning.

5:30pm	Welcome Roy Blackwell & Helen Simon
5:40pm	PedTech: Pedagogically led uses of digital technology An introduction to the research and its implications Dr Fiona Aubrey-Smith
6pm	The ecosystem supporting PedTech Thomas Lange
6:10pm	What does PedTech in practice look like? Leadership insights into the impact of PedTech on learning and teaching Chaired by Dame Alison Peacock, with insights from Phil Hedger, Jonathan Bishop, Dr Neelam Parmar and John Murphy
6:40pm	Structured discussion groups - over wine & sandwiches An opportunity to talk in depth with colleagues about specific aspects of using digital technology more effectively to support learning.
	Discussions (for those in the room)	Breakout Rooms (for online attendees)
	Teaching & Learning Chaired by Phil Hedger	Teaching & Learning
	Leadership Chaired by Alison Peacock	Leadership
	Assessment Chaired by Helen Simon	Assessment
	Researching Chaired by Cat Scutt	Researching
7:15pm	Insights & Actions Chairs from each discussion group will share key insights and recommended actions.
7:40pm	Reflection An opportunity to ask questions of any speaker, panellist, chair or group Chaired by Cat Scutt
7:55pm	Close Roy Blackwell & Helen Simon
8pm	Depart

After this event, the Worshipful Company of Educator and the Chartered College of Teaching will publish a paper sharing insight from discussion groups and speakers.

Please note that in person places are limited and available on a first-come-first-served basis.